

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

During your treatment at a division of Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center, doctors, nurses, and other caregivers may gather information about your medical history and your current health. This notice explains how that information may be used and shared with others. It also explains your privacy rights regarding this kind of information. The terms of this notice apply to health information created or received by Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center. We are required by law to: make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private; give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to medical information about you; and follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

Practices/Locations Covered by this Notice

This Notice of Privacy Practices applies to all practice divisions and facilities of Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center ("Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center"), along with their related sites, and contracted anesthesia entities. Please visit our website, BlaineOrthopedicSurgeryCenter.com for a complete list of our divisions and facilities.

Your medical information may be used and disclosed for the following purposes:

- Treatment: We may use your information to provide, coordinate, and manage your care and treatment. For example, a Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center physician may share your medical information with another physician for a consultation or a referral.
- Payment: We may use and disclose medical information about you so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed to, and payment may be collected from, you, an insurance company, or another third party. For example, we may need to give your health plan information about treatment you received at Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the treatment. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.
- Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose medical information about you for Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center's health care operations. Health care operations are the uses and disclosures of information that are necessary to run Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center and to make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use medical information to review our treatment and services, business planning and business management, and to evaluate and improve the performance of our staff and physicians in caring for you.

Minnesota Patients: Minnesota law generally requires patient consent for disclosures of health records for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes, unless the disclosure is to a related provider for current treatment, consent is not possible due to a medical emergency, or the release is authorized by law. Absent one of these exceptions, we will get your written consent prior to making disclosures outside Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center for treatment, payment, or health care operations purposes.

- Fundraising: Occasionally, Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center may use limited information (your name, address, and the dates you were seen for medical services) to let you know about fundraising or other charitable events. You have the right to request that we not send you information about fund-raising. If you would prefer that Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center not notify you about fundraising events, please notify the Privacy Officer.

disclosures to your spouse.

- Right to Request Confidential Communications: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we contact you only at work or only by mail.

To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing to the Medical Records Department. We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted, and we may require you to provide information about how payment will be handled.

- Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice: You have the right to receive a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice any time. This notice is on our website - www.BlaineOrthopedicSurgeryCenter.com.

Cookies and Non-Health Information

If you visit some of our public facing websites, certain non-medical information may be tracked and/or shared with our partners like an IP address, device ID, browser setting, operating system, referring domain, language preferences, mobile carrier, website activity and cookies. By using our website, you are consenting to the tracking and/or sharing of this non-medical information. A "cookie" is a small file stored on your computer by a website which stores certain information about your activity on the website. We use cookies for data analytics purposes and to determine how users are interacting with the website and to optimize performance. We do not track or share any patient medical information for these purposes.

Browser Cookie Settings

Most browsers are set to accept cookies automatically. You can set your browser to decline all cookies automatically or to prompt you for a response each time a cookie is offered. If you decline cookies, you may find that you cannot access all our website's features. Opt-outs are device- and browser-specific and may not work in all instances.

Changes to This Notice

The effective date of this notice is April 14, 2003, and it has been updated effective August 30, 2024. We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for medical information we already have about you, as well as any information we receive in the future. If the terms of this notice are changed, Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will provide you with a revised notice upon request, and we will post the revised notice on our website – BlaineOrthopedicSurgeryCenter.com – and in designated locations at Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center practice locations.

Complaints or Questions

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center, or to ask a question about this Notice, contact:

Privacy Officer
Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center
3500 American Blvd W, #300, Bloomington, MN 55431
E-mail: PrivacyOfficer@i-Health.com
Phone: 952-512-5600

All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

right to receive a copy of your health information in electronic form. You may also direct us to provide such electronic health information directly to an entity or person clearly and specifically designated by you in writing.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy your information in certain very limited circumstances. For example, we may deny access if your physician believes it will be harmful to your health, or could cause a threat to others. In these cases, we may supply the information to a third party who may release the information to you. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

- Right to Request Amendment: If you believe that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to ask us to change the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center.

To request a change to your information, your request must be made in writing and submitted to the Medical Records Department. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request.

Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
 - Is not part of the medical information kept by or for Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center;
 - Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
 - Is accurate and complete.
- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request an “accounting of disclosures.” This is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you. This list will not include disclosures for treatment, payment, and health care operations; disclosures that you have authorized or that have been made to you; disclosures for facility directories; disclosures for national security or intelligence purposes; disclosures to correctional institutions or law enforcement with custody of you; disclosures that took place before April 14, 2003; and certain other disclosures.

To request this list of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to the Medical Records Department. Your request must state a time period for which you would like the accounting. The accounting period may not go back further than six years from the date of the request, and it may not include dates before April 14, 2003. You may receive one free accounting in any 12-month period. We will charge you for additional requests.

- Right to Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you. If you pay out-of-pocket in full for an item or service, then you may request that we not disclose information pertaining solely to such item or service to your health plan for purposes of payment or health care operations. We are required to agree with such a request. However, we are not required to agree to any other request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment.

To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to the Medical Records Department. In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure, or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply, for example, if you want to prohibit

- To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person;
 - If you are the victim of a crime, if, under certain limited circumstances, we are unable to obtain your agreement;
 - About a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct;
 - About criminal conduct at our facility; and
 - In emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.
- Coroners, Medical Examiners, and Funeral Directors: We will release medical information to a coroner or medical examiner in the case of certain types of death, and we must disclose health records upon the request of the coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify you or determine the cause of death. We may also release the fact of death and certain demographic information about you to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties. Other disclosures from your health record will require the consent of a surviving spouse, parent, a person appointed by you in writing, or your legally authorized representative, for a period of 50 years following your death.
 - National Security and Intelligence Activities: We will release medical information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counter-intelligence, and other national security activities only as required by law or with your written consent.
 - Protective Services for the President and Others: We will disclose medical information about you to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons, or foreign heads of state, or conduct special investigations only as required by law or with your written consent.
 - Inmates: If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we will release medical information about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement official only as required by law or with your written consent.
 - Psychotherapy Notes: Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will not use or disclose psychotherapy notes without your written consent.
 - Marketing and Sale of Private Medical Information: Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will not use or disclose your private medical information for marketing purposes, nor will Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center sell your private medical information for marketing purposes without your written consent.
 - Breach Notification: You will be notified in writing by Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center within 60 days if we become aware of any violation of HIPAA privacy rules resulting in the acquisition, unauthorized access, or use or disclosure of your private medical information if that information is not protected by government approved security measures.

You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

- Right to Access, Inspect and Copy: You have the right to access, inspect and receive a copy of your medical information that is used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records maintained by Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center.

If you wish to inspect and copy medical information, you must submit your request in writing to the Medical Records Department. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, or other supplies associated with your request, to the extent permitted by state and federal law. If we maintain your health information in an electronic health record, you have the - Military and Veterans: If you are a member of the armed forces, we will release medical information about you as requested by military command authorities if we are required to do so by law, or when we have your written consent. We may also release medical information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority as required by law or with written consent.

- Workers' Compensation: We may release medical information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness. We are permitted to disclose information regarding your work-related injury to your employer or your employer's workers' compensation insurer without your specific consent, so long as the information is related to a workers' compensation claim.
- Public Health: We may disclose medical information to public health authorities about you for public health activities. These disclosures generally include the following:
 - Preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability;
 - Reporting births and deaths;
 - Reporting child abuse or neglect, or abuse of a vulnerable adult;
 - Reporting reactions to medications or problems with products;
 - Notifying people of recalls of products they may be using;
 - Notifying a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition;
 - Reporting to the FDA as permitted or required by law; or
 - In Wisconsin, reporting to the Department of Transportation if you cannot exercise reasonable and ordinary care over a vehicle.
- Health Oversight Activities: Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for health oversight activities that are authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, government audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure activities. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Minnesota Patients: Minnesota law requires that patient-identifying information (for example, your name, social security number, etc.) be removed from most disclosures for health oversight purposes, unless you have provided us with written consent for the disclosure.

Wisconsin Patients: Wisconsin law requires us to deny access to state or federal government agencies when they attempt to perform oversight functions if a private pay patient submits to us a written request on the form provided by the Wisconsin Department of Health Services.

- Lawsuits and Disputes: If you are involved in a lawsuit, dispute, or other judicial proceeding, we will disclose medical information about you only in response to a valid court order, or with your written consent.
- Law Enforcement: We may release medical information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official in response to a valid court order or with your written consent. In addition, we are required to report certain types of wounds, such as gunshot wounds and some burns. In most cases, reports will include only the fact of injury, and any additional disclosures would require your consent or a court order.

We may also release information to law enforcement that is not a part of the health record (in other words, non-medical information) for the following reasons:

- To People Assisting in Your Care. Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will only disclose medical information to those taking care of you, helping you to pay your bills, or other close family members or friends if these people need to know this information to help you, and then only to the extent permitted by law. We may, for example, provide limited medical information to allow a family member to pick up a prescription for you. Generally, we will get your written consent prior to making disclosures about you to family or friends. If you are able to make your own health care decisions, Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will ask your permission before using your medical information for these purposes. If you are unable to make health care decisions, Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will disclose relevant medical information to family members or other responsible people if we feel it is in your best interest to do so, including in an emergency situation.
- Research: Federal law permits Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center to use and disclose medical information about you for research purposes, either with your specific, written authorization or when the study has been reviewed for privacy protection by an Institutional Review Board or Privacy Board before the research begins. In some cases, researchers may be permitted to use information in a limited way to determine whether the study or the potential participants are appropriate. Private pay patients in Wisconsin may deny access to researchers by annually submitting to Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center a signed, written request on a form provided by the Wisconsin Department of Health Services. Minnesota and Wisconsin law generally requires that we get your general consent before we disclose your health information to an external researcher. We will make a good faith effort to obtain your consent or refusal to participate in external research, as required by law, prior to releasing any identifiable information about you to external researchers.
- As Required by Law: We will disclose medical information about you when we are required to do so by federal, state, or local law.
- To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety:
Minnesota Patients: We may use and disclose medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure must be only to someone able to help prevent the threat. Minnesota law generally does not permit these disclosures unless we have your written consent to do so or when the disclosure is specifically required by law, including the limited circumstances in which Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center health care professionals have a “duty to warn.” Wisconsin Patients: We may use and disclose medical information about you when your life or health appears to be in danger and the information contained in the patient health care records may aid the person in rendering assistance.
- To Business Associates: Some services are provided by or to Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center through contracts with business associates. Examples include Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center’s attorneys, management service company, consultants, collection agencies, and accreditation organizations. We may disclose information about you to our business associate so that they can perform the job we have contracted with them to do. To protect the information that is disclosed, each business associate is required to sign an agreement to appropriately safeguard the information and not to redisclose the information unless specifically permitted by law.

Your medical information may be released in the following special situations:

- Organ and Tissue Donation: We may release your medical information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation, or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation. The information that Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center may disclose is limited to the information necessary to make a transplant possible.

Other Uses of Medical Information

Except as described above, Blaine Orthopedic Surgery Center will not use or disclose your protected health information without a specific written authorization from you. If you provide us with this written authorization to use or disclose medical information about you, you may revoke that authorization, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose medical information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization, except to the extent we have already relied on your authorization. We are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

Revised August 30, 2024